

Oscar Bacino
Chiropractor

Oscar Bacino holds a Bachelor of Physiotherapy, a Master's degree in Ericksonian Psychotherapy, and a Bachelor of Chiropractic, supplemented by postgraduate certifications in the Gonstead System and Extremity Chiropractic.

With 40 years of experience as a holistic-vitalistic health practitioner, he currently practices in Dannevirke, New Zealand, where he is dedicated to enhancing patient wellbeing by promoting the unique identity and clinical application of specific chiropractic.

A former lecturer, mentor, and supervisor at the New Zealand College of Chiropractic, Oscar remains deeply committed to professional development and the preservation of the profession's core principles.

He further contributes to the profession as an auditor for the Continuing Professional Development (CPD) programme and as a member of the Professional Conduct Committee (PCC) for the Chiropractic Board of New Zealand.
