

Jessey Wong
Chiropractor

Dr Jessey Wong is an upper cervical chiropractor practising in Singapore, specialising in the Knee Chest technique. Originally from Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, she graduated with a Master of Chiropractic from AECC University College, UK, in 2020.

Taking a holistic approach to care, Jessey is passionate about supporting the body's natural ability to function and adapt. She believes in helping people achieve better health and well-being and has experience caring for people across all stages of life, from paediatrics to geriatrics.

Her professional training includes Knee Chest Upper Cervical Specific (KCUCS), Blair Upper Cervical, Sacro-Occipital Technique (SOT), the Sanrocco Method, Total Body Modification (TBM), Bio-Energetic Synchronization Technique (B.E.S.T.), Applied Kinesiology, and Syntropy Adjusting.

Outside the clinic, Jessey finds joy in nature and hiking. She values a sustainable approach to health and hopes to inspire others to care for themselves with greater awareness, intention, and compassion.
